

Mary Grey Maher, M.D.

Dr. Mary Grey Maher is one of the area's few board certified urologists who is fellowship trained in female urology. Specializing in the care of women's urological problems, including urinary incontinence and pelvic organ prolapse, she also offers much expertise in general urology and male urological dysfunction.

Dr. Maher earned her medical degree at Yale University School of Medicine and completed her residency at Yale-New Haven Hospital in New Haven, CT. She completed a fellowship in Female Urology, Reconstructive Surgery and Urodynamics at UCLA Medical Center in California and is an attending physician at both Yale-New Haven Hospital and the Hospital of Saint Raphael.

A native of Connecticut, Dr. Maher resides in New Haven with her husband and two children.
